

DAVID J. DODSON

EDUCATION

- 1985 Masters of Landscape Architecture, California State Polytechnic University, Pomona.
- 1982 B.S. in Liberal Studies, emphasis in Landscape Architecture, Oregon State University.

WORK EXPERIENCE

- 1999- Present Willamette Valley Planning LLC, Corvallis, Oregon
Providing consulting services such as land use planning, landscape design, site analysis, preparation of development applications, codes and ordinances, specific plans, design guidelines, community outreach and consensus building.
- 2009- 2018 Oregon State University Land Use Planning Manager, Corvallis, Oregon
Responsible for managing the university's planning unit during the decade of the largest capital campaign and new building construction in its 149-year history. Managed development of the long-range Campus District Plan, chaired the Campus Planning Committee and oversaw development within the university's 180-acre historic district.
- 1993 - 1999 City Planner, Corvallis, Oregon
Worked on a broad range of projects including updating the Comprehensive Plan, facilitated the 2020 Vision Statement, established the downtown economic improvement district, development review of land use applications, and various citizen involvement activities.
- 1988 - 1993 The Planning Center, Newport Beach, California
Responsible for managing, directing and processing major large scale planning projects within the firms Design and Governmental Services Division.
- 1985 - 1988 CRSS Incorporated, Houston, Texas
Served in a highly responsible capacity as Discipline Project Manager and Lead Landscape Architect orchestrating design and production documents within the firm's multi-disciplinary environment.
- 1983 - 1985 Robert Bucci Associates, Newport Beach, California
Responsibilities included assisting principal partner with landscape design development, construction documentation, specifications, contract documents and presentation graphics.